

China Medical Equipment Fair (CMEF)

18 – 21 April 2010 Shenzhen, China

Closing date: 5 February 2010

CMEF is considered the leading Healthcare trade show in China and is now the largest Medical Equipment exhibition in the Asia Pacific region attracting over 60,000 visitors. The exhibition takes place in Shenzhen near Hong Kong and attracts over 2000 exhibitors from 21 countries as well as 13 national country pavilions.

ABHI is organising the UK Pavilion at CMEF and given the huge success of the UK Pavilion in 2009 is going to have a strong group of UK companies in 2010. The increasing demand from companies to be part of the UK group means that space for 2010 is limited and we therefore ask that interested companies please contact the ABHI and complete and return their booking form as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

CMEF 2010 will showcase a vast array of different medical technologies including: medical electronics equipment, optical equipment, dental equipment, radioactive equipment, ultrasonic equipment, diagnostic and therapeutic instruments, physiotherapy/orthopaedic technology, lab equipment, commodities and consumer goods for surgeries and hospitals, rescue and emergency equipment, medical furniture and equipment, medical magazines and services.

When joining the ABHI UK Pavilion companies will benefit from a range of support and services provided for as part of the package which companies would not otherwise receive. Some of these added value opportunities include:

- High quality, custom, UK stand design and package
- Grant Funding of £1400 from UK Trade & Investment
- UK Pavilion support stand offering refreshments, meeting areas, internet access, promotional opportunities
- High quality branded UK group and comprehensive directory of UK companies
- Organisation of supporting events and initiatives to promote the UK presence and inform visitors
- Visits from Commercial Officers and Buyers from the region
- Expert advice and support from dedicated ABHI staff at the exhibition
- Assistance in all pre show arrangements from experienced ABHI staff
- Dedicated, reliable contractors to assist you with logistical arrangements

ABHI provides comprehensive support making sure UK exhibitors are prepared and have the best opportunities to meet their customers. ABHI provides comprehensive pre show information, advice and support and works hard to ensure that exhibitors continue to gain contacts and business after the trade show finishes by providing follow up support and promotion.
