

81 new medicines

were recommended for approval by the European Medicines Agency in 2016, to treat conditions including cancer, and neurological conditions.¹

10% of NHS doctors

come from elsewhere in the EU. This is almost 7% of the UK medical workforce.²

5% of NHS nurses

are from elsewhere in the EU.⁶

Brexit

making sense of the issues

16%

of NHS midwives in London are from elsewhere in the EU. The total number of midwives in England from the EU is over 1,000.³

€300m

estimated EU health research funds were received by UK organisations for health research since January 2014.⁵

20%

of surgeons in England trained in other EU countries.⁴

1. European Medicines Agency 2016

2. House of Commons briefing paper 2016

3. The Royal College of Midwives, figure applies to full time equivalent

4. Making the best of Brexit for the NHS, Royal College of Surgeons positioning paper 2016

5. European Commission presentation, UK Research Office conference July 2016

6. Cavendish Coalition Health Select Committee submission Nov 2016

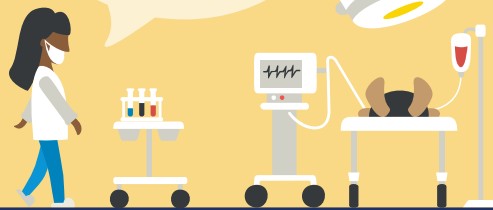

Midwife

I'm from the Republic of Ireland. How will the exchange rate affect my income?

Surgeon

I trained outside of the UK, will my qualifications still be recognised?

HR Director

Should we go ahead with our international recruitment campaigns?

We don't have all the answers, but we are here to help

📌 Sign up to our regular Brexit bulletin for the latest info and news

Will my patients still be able to take part in Europe-wide clinical trials?

Will my patients continue to get access to new drugs as quickly as possible?

Will my patients still have access to healthcare in other EU countries?

